Hi Fashion BID team,

It's with great excitement that I invite you to the Downtown Los Angeles Cultural Stakeholders Group's next gathering: a communal dinner for the leaders of Downtown's arts-aligned organizations.

Please join us for dinner at Grand Central Market on Thursday, August 13 at 6:00pm. We'll gather and share, present Downtown's upcoming cultural happenings, and reveal new initiatives.

Invitation below. RSVP is required.

Also attached is the Get Down Town support letter I gave to Ariana as well as the sponsorship form. If you're willing to join the other BIDs in contribution, please confirm by August 12 at the very latest. Thank you again for supporting Downtown's arts and culture development!
